INTRODUCTION TO GLASS BLOWING WORKSHOP 2010

Thank you for expressed interest in participating in the PSSG introduction to hot glass workshop at our studio at the Abbotsford Convent. The course is held each Saturday for five weeks.

The fee per participant is $690.00 (GST inclusive). All materials are included.

Classes commence at 9:00am and finish 1:00pm

There are only eight positions available, interested parties please complete the enclosed application/information form and return with the non refundable payment in full for the preferred workshop. For insurance reasons no persons under the age of sixteen are able to apply for a position in the workshop. Applications will be taken on first in first served basis, acknowledged by payment of the deposit.

The course will be structured to cover the following areas:

- Basic solid forming
- Colour application
- Blowing
- Hot glass manipulation
- Teamwork skills
- General Overview of glass making practices
- Cold working glass

Look forward to hearing from you soon

Regards,

Philip Stokes
